

Policy on Annual Maintenance Checks

It was Agreed that all checks such as gas supply, drain clearance, PAT testing (as advised) should be taken out annually, but the electrical installations should be checked when the next review is necessary.